Mrs Nellie Fleming

my Dear sweet wife Will Drop you another line to night as I am fine and dandy in Health but God damn how lonesome I am for you mama I wish now I had of stayed in the first place and not come home till I could of come to stay for I cant hardly stand it now. I like my work fine and dandy but I dont want it and be away from you at any price but it will kind of get me broke in to working again mama I dont know any more now than I did about my Discharge but it hasent had time yet from this end you have to see Jim Mabon the first time he goes to miami and tell him that they have done nothing so far and maby he can do some thing for they have no right on earth not to give me my Discharge at once it might be that I will have it right away but I want it right now so dam bad I cant sit still or sleep of a night for thinking about it there is 4 or 5 going out tomorrow or next day but I dont think I am in that bunch it aint in me to be that lucky but lets hope I will be in the next one they will be some more by the last of this month if I can get out then I will satisfied? how is work are the mines all down or are they picking up a gain I hope they are any way. Will Ma & I will ring off and write more next time. I never got no letter to day but I think I will to morrow. so by by baby and be good I send all this. has got fever thing I remain your true and loving Husband Bill Fleming.
